Karnataka State Commission for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes has written to Jain University seeking a detailed report on the incident.

The Bengaluru University Postgraduate and Research Students' Union has also called for a self-imposed bandh on Tuesday against Iain University for allowing a "derogatory play" defaming an eminent leader.

The controversial skit was performed Wednesday at NIMHANS Convention Center during a youth festival organised by CMS.

In an alleged video that went viral, some students are seen performing 'Mad Ads' focusing on the reservation policy. The skit involved dialogues that were allegedly "offensive towards Dr Ambedkar and the Dalit community", and enraged pro-Dalit groups in Karnataka and Maharashtra.

The authorities at CMS, meanwhile, maintained that the video that has been circulated is "halfbaked" and the full clip actually shows the overall picture of reservation and caste system. "The skit was not presented before faculties. The students performed extempore on the stage. We have already issued a public apology," said a college official.

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA AHMEDABAD, FEBRUARY 13

A METROPOLITAN magistrate's court here on Monday committed to the sessions court for trial a case against social activist Teesta Setalvad and two former IPS officers wherein they are accused of fabricating evidence to frame "innocent people and defame Gujarat" in connection with the 2002 post-Godhra riots in the state.

Additional metropolitan magistrate MV Chauhan committed the case to the sessions court in Ahmedabad for trial against Setalvad, former state Director General of Police RB Sreekumar and ex-Indian Police Service (IPS) officer Sanjiv Bhatt.

The Ahmedabad city police's crime branch had registered an FIR (first information report) against them in June 2022, and a special investigation team (SIT) formed to probe the case had filed a chargesheet in the metropolitan magistrate's court on September 21 last year.

While Mumbai-based activist Setalvad and Sreekumar, arrested in June 2022, are currently out on interim bail. Bhatt is serving a life sentence in a jail in Palanpur in Gujarat's Banaskantha district in a custodial death matter. According to existing legal norms, all cases relating to offences punishable with a life sentence or jail term exceeding seven years are to be committed to a sessions court for trial.

The crime branch had registered the FIR against the trio after the Supreme Supreme Court last year dismissed a petition challenging the clean chit given by an earlier SIT to then-Gujarat Chief Minister Narendra Modi and others in cases related to post-Godhra communal riots.

The Gujarat riots were triggered by the torching of a coach

All three have been accused of abusing the process of law by conspiring to fabricate evidence with an attempt to frame "innocent people" for an offence punishable with capital punishment in connection with the 2002 riots. In its 6,300-page chargesheet, the SIT formed to investigate the case against the trio has cited 90 witnesses, including retired IPS officerturned-lawyer Rahul Sharma and Congress Rajya Sabha MP Shaktisinh Gohil.

A K Malhotra, a member of the earlier SIT appointed by the Supreme Court to look into the riots cases and the officer who had questioned Modi, is also among the witnesses.

Among the documentary evidence in the chargesheet is a copy of a complaint filed by Zakia Jafri, widow of former Congress MP Ehsan Jafri, in June 2006 in which she had accused 63 persons, including then-CM Modi, of "wilful dereliction" of duty.
